

Module Objectives

Upon completion of this course, the learner should

- be sensitized on different legal frameworks for online interventions in European countries
- be aware about international and European initiatives on legal issues
- have reflected about the situation in her/his country.

Module Outline

- Unit 4.1: Online interventions and legal framework – awareness raising
- Unit 4.2: The European eHealth Action Plan 2020 as encouragement for online services
- Unit 4.3: Legal barriers to deployment of online interventions

Module 4: Legal Aspects

- The module reflects the status quo of legal aspects of online interventions.
- It refers to the European eHealth Action Plan 2020 and its implications.
- It draws attention to the fact European countries apply partly similar, partly different legal frameworks to online counselling and therapy.
- Learners have the opportunity to reflect on different conditions and their advantages and disadvantages.
